Spotlight

KEY METRICS	VALUE
10Y Yield	4.70
WTI Crude	82.41
Gold	4,471.50

The surge in WTI crude oil and the increase in the 10Y Yield are key factors to watch. Gold also rose, indicating a potential shift in investor sentiment.

The combination of these factors may impact the markets, and investors should be cautious. The rise in crude oil and the 10Y Yield may lead to increased inflation and interest rates.
